

It's Time to Make Friends

It's good to have friends.

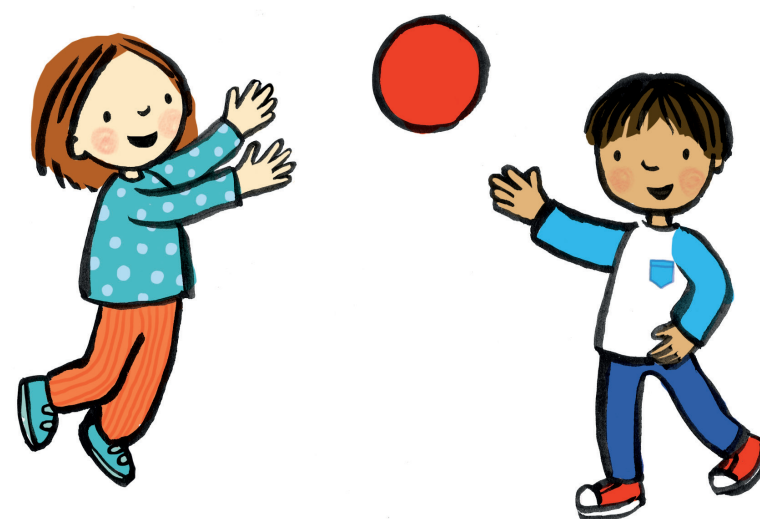

Every friend is different.

Friends play together.

Who do you like to play with?

Always look out for other children who may need a friend like YOU!

From leading Early Years expert, Penny Tassoni, these new picture books use simple words and colourful illustrations to help young children understand all-important everyday skills.