

We all spend a lot of time on screens, so stories representative of social media and online behaviours are important. This book list explores digital literacy, the highs and lows of social media and finding the balance between online life and real life.

TITLE: HUMAN KIND - Changing The World One Small Act At a Time.

Authors: Brad Aronson

Publisher: LifeTree

Age: KS3/4

Also available as an eBook

TITLE: UNFRIENDED

Authors: Rachel Vail

Publisher: Penguin Young Readers

Age: KS3/4

Also available as an eBook

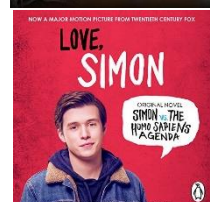

TITLE: #Scandal

Authors: Sarah Ockler

Publisher: Simon & Schuster Books for Young Readers

Age: KS3/4

Also available as an eBook

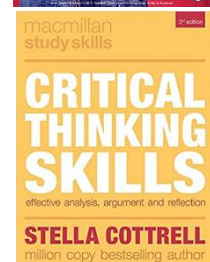

TITLE: Love Simon

Authors: Becky Albertalli

Publisher: Penguin Books

Age: KS3/4

Also available as an eBook

TITLE: CRITICAL THINKING SKILLS

Authors: Stella Cottrell

Publisher: Macmillan Study Skills

Age: KS3/4

Also available as an eBook

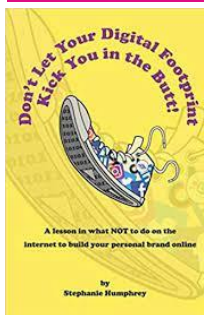

TITLE: GIRL (in real life)

Authors: Tasmin Winter

Publisher: Usborne Publishing Ltd

Age: KS3

Also available as an eBook

TITLE: Don't Let Your Digital Footprint Kick You in the Butt!

Authors: Stephanie Humphrey

Publisher: Stephanie Humphrey

Age: KS3/4

Also available as an eBook

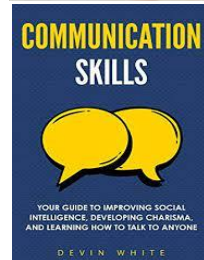

TITLE: FREE TO FALL

Authors: Lauren Miller

Publisher: Harperteen

Age: KS3/4

Also available as an eBook

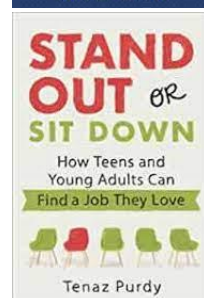

TITLE: Communication Skills

Authors: Devin White

Publisher: More Books LLC

Age: KS4

Also available as an eBook

TITLE: Stand Out or Sit Down

Authors: Tenaz Purdy

Publisher: Independent

Age: KS3/4

Also available as an eBook